REPORT ON REVIEW OF INTERIM FINANCIAL INFORMATION TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF ABU DHABI PORTS COMPANY PJSC

Introduction

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed consolidated statement of financial position of Abu Dhabi Ports Company PJSC (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (together, the “Group”) as at 30 June 2023 and the related condensed consolidated statements of profit or loss, comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the six-month period then ended and selected explanatory notes. Management is responsible for the preparation and presentation of this interim financial information in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34 Interim Financial Reporting (IAS 34). Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this interim financial information based on our review.

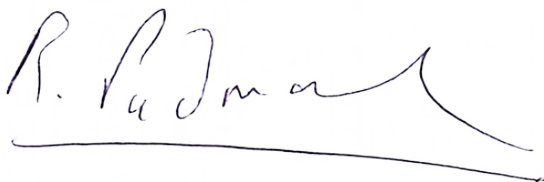

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with the International Standard on Review Engagements 2410, “Review of interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity.” A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying interim financial information of the Group are not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34, “Interim Financial Reporting”.

From acquisition of EAJ (note 31)	39,913	-
From acquisition of Noatum (note 31)	3,102	-

- (i) As part of business combination (note 31), the Group acquired the derivative financial asset of EAJ which was entered as an Interest Rate Swap Agreement (“IRS Agreement”) with a local bank for a pay fixed interest rate of 3.75% p.a. and receive floating AED EIBOR interest rate swap on its bank borrowing. The notional amount of the swap is AED 975.49 million at the end of the reporting period. Fixed and floating rates are payable/receivable every 24th of January, April, July and October until the termination date on 1 July 2030.

Eligibility of hedged item and hedging instrument

The hedged item i.e., bank borrowing with a local bank, is an identifiable liability which can be reliably measured (see note 21(iii)). The hedging instrument, i.e., interest rate swap, meets the definition of a derivative under IFRS 9 since it does not have any net written option. Hence, the hedged item and hedging instrument can be considered eligible for the purpose of applying hedge accounting under IFRS 9.

Economic relationship between the hedged item and hedging instrument

The Group's exposure is to the loss in interest suffered during the period when market interest rates are higher than the targeted cost of borrowing. This exposure is being swapped into a fixed rate exposure by entering into a pay fixed and receive floating interest rate swap calibrated to AED-EIBOR. The facility issued and the notional amount of the swap are both denominated in AED and the benchmark index for both is the 3-month AED EIBOR. The fixed rate of discount amortised in each period nullifies the variable rate of interest receivable under the swap; thus, it can be concluded that the hedging instrument and hedged item have values that generally move in the opposite direction because of the same hedged risk. Hence, there is an expectation that the value of the hedging instrument and the value of the hedged item will systematically change in response to movements.

Hedge ratio

EAJ established a hedge ratio based on the relationship between the quantity of the hedging instrument and the quantity of the hedged item in terms of their relative weighting.

Measurement of hedge effectiveness

To test the hedge effectiveness, EAJ used the hypothetical derivative method and compared the changes in the fair value of the hedging instrument against the changes in fair value of the hedged item attributable to the hedged risk.

The hedge ineffectiveness can arise from:

- Different interest rate curve applied to discount the hedged item and hedging instrument;
- Differences in timing of cash flows of the hedged item and hedging instrument; and
- The counterparties' credit risk differently impacting the fair value movements of the hedging instrument and hedged item.

Based on the hedge effectiveness test, the Group recognised the effective portion of the fair value within the other comprehensive income statement a loss of AED 1.4 million.

Information reported to the Group's Chief Executive Officer (the Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM)) for the purposes of resource allocation and assessment of segment performance is focused on the category of customer for each type of activity. The operating segments are organised and managed separately according to the nature of the products and services provided, with each segment representing a strategic operating unit that offers different products and serves different markets.

Operating segments

For management purposes, the Group is currently organised into six major operating segments. These segments are the basis on which the Group reports its primary segmental information. These are:

- Ports, which owns or operates ports and terminals in the region. Ports cluster mainly derives its revenue from general cargo operations, container terminal concessions and port infrastructure leases.
- Economic Cities & Free Zones (EC&FZ), which principally operates KEZAD and other industrial cities following the integration of ZonesCorp in 2020. Economic Cities & Free Zones mainly derives its revenue from lease of land, warehouses, and other utility services.
- Logistics, which provides a range of logistical services, such as transportation, warehouse, freight forwarding, supply chain services and cargo handling services along with other value added services. Logistics mainly derives its revenue from warehouse management, freight forwarding and cargo services.
- Maritime, which provides a range of marine services, including feeder, as well as transshipment and offshore support services within and outside UAE. Maritime mainly derives its revenue from port side service fees, feeder, offshore services, vessel chartering, underwater surveys and other general marine services. Maritime also operate international container shipping lines from Egypt that primarily operates in the Middle East, the Red sea regions,
- Digital, which provides digital services to external customers through Maqta Gateway as well as services to the Group's other segments. Digital mainly derives its revenue from digitalisation of transactional services, software development and other support services.
- Corporate, responsible for managing investments held by the Group, development of infrastructure assets for other segments, management of administrative activities for the segments and general coordination of the Group's activities.

Management monitors the operating results of its business units separately for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocations and performance management. Segment performance is measured based on adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted EBITDA is calculated by adjusting net profit for the period from continuing operations by excluding the impact of taxation, net finance costs, depreciation, amortisation, revenue from government grant amortisation and impairment related to goodwill, intangible assets, property and plant and equipment and investment properties. The Group's management reporting process allocates intra-Group profit on a product sale to the market in which that sale is recorded.
